Looking back at JPro22

JPro22: Going Places, Together in partnership with Jewish Federations convened over 1,200 Jewish communal professionals after two years of a pandemic.

Click here to see what's possible when we come together as Jewish communal professionals to learn, connect, and celebrate our collective impact.

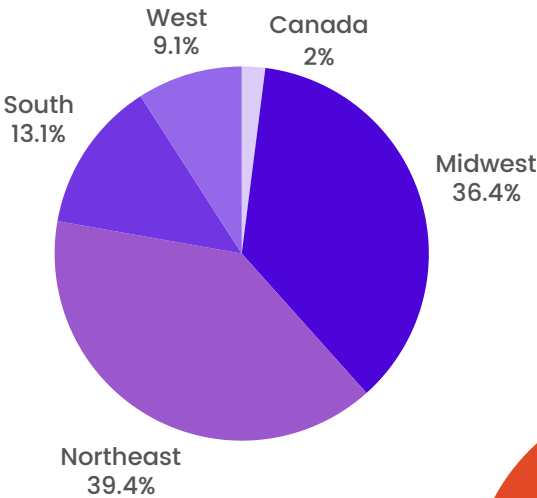

I leave JPro22 deeply moved. I was inspired by the energy, the content, and the passion that filled the convention center throughout. I'm feeling extremely optimistic about a Jewish future in North America created by the colleagues in the room. What a blessing.
