

Jonathan Kaufman

Co-Founder & Principal

Third Plateau Social Impact Strategies

Jonathan Kaufman is Co-Founder & Principal of Third Plateau Social Impact Strategies, a leading social impact and philanthropy consulting firm. In this role, Jonathan partners with nonprofits, foundations, local governments, and social entrepreneurs all over the world, helping them expand and deepen their impact. He specializes in business and strategic planning, team culture, board development, program design, and organizational innovation. A frequent collaborator in the Jewish communal space, Jonathan has partnered with clients including the Jewish Federation of Greater Washington, Prizmah, Recustom, Amud, Jewish Multiracial Network, Repair the World, and many others. He is a lead facilitator and program designer for JPro Ignite.

Jonathan holds a B.A. in Religious Studies from Vassar College and an M.B.A. in Nonprofit Management and Social Entrepreneurship from Washington University in St. Louis, where he was a Danforth Scholar and recipient of the Dean's Award for Corporate Social Responsibility. He is an instructor of social innovation at Hebrew Union College and a guest lecturer at the UC Berkeley Haas School of Business.