

Annie Fortnow
Boston Regional Director
Jewish Studio Project

Annie Fortnow (she/her) is the Boston Regional Director at Jewish Studio Project, an organization that cultivates creativity as a Jewish practice for spiritual connection and social transformation. She has spent her career working in Jewish communal life, with experience at Hillel, Federation, and a Boston-based social service agency. Annie holds a Social Impact MBA and MA in Jewish Professional Leadership from the Brandeis Hornstein Program, where she was a Wexner Graduate Fellow/Davidson Scholar. In her role at Jewish Studio Project, she builds spaces for Jewish learning, reflection, and community connection through creative expression in the Boston Jewish community.