

Sarah Fried

Sarah Fried is the Chief External Affairs Officer for Hillel International, overseeing organizational advancement for the Hillel movement through strategic partnerships, resource development, marketing, communications, and global experiences. Sarah and her team are charged with creating and implementing innovative strategies that grow overall resources for Hillel International and local affiliates, building the Hillel brand to deepen stakeholder engagement in the movement and developing strategic partnerships that align resources with organizational priorities. Previously, Sarah served as vice president for leadership giving at The Associated: Jewish Community Federation of Baltimore. Sarah received her B.S from Ithaca College and master's degrees from both The University of Pennsylvania and Gratz College.